STEERING YOUR PRACTICE INTO THE FUTURE

A Leadership Conference for Nurses 2012

January 19, 2012

Kensington Court

610 Hilton Blvd.

Ann Arbor, MI 48108

www.kcourtaa.com

Every nurse is a leader, no matter the position or work setting. Nurses need to articulate professional issues, negotiate patient care, support and coach one another and implement changes in practice.

Leadership skills are essential in the changing health care environment and nurses with strong leadership skills are the professionals who make a difference.

At this conference you will identify leadership skills which can be integrated into your work and life. All nurses wanting to enhance their leadership will benefit from this program.

6.0 contact hours

1.0 additional contact hour for optional pain session

Benefits of Leadership

Objectives:

- Discuss national and local issues and trends in healthcare and nursing
- Explore strategies to enable nurses to practice to the fullest extent of their education
- Describe the essential elements needed to develop and enhance your leadership role

Accreditation:

The University of Michigan Health System's Professional Development & Education is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

6.0 contact hours for nursing will be provided.

1.0 contact hour for nursing will be provided for the optional pain session.

The American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation requires that all approved continuing education activities are balanced and lack bias. Therefore, all presenters and planners declare any vested interests in, or commercial sponsorship for, the continuing education activity prior to the event. Participants are made aware of these potential conflicts so that they may form their own judgments about the presentation with full disclosure of facts.
